

I feel it is important to submit my opinion on this issue. I am against further deregulation of the media. This is a very important decision, and the American people should be made aware of the upcoming vote so that their opinions can be heard! We need diversity in the media, not one voice heard on a variety of channels.